A large grid of dotted lines covering the main body of the calendar page, used for writing daily activities. The grid is divided into seven vertical columns, each corresponding to one of the dates listed in the header: 11/12, 11/13, 11/14, 11/15, 11/16, 11/17, and 11/18. Each column is approximately 130 units wide. The grid extends from the top of the header down to a solid horizontal line that separates the calendar from a larger, empty rectangular box at the bottom of the page.A large, empty rectangular box located at the bottom of the page, below the dotted grid. It is bounded by solid lines on the top, left, and right sides. This area is typically used for providing a summary of the week's events, a list of tasks, or other notes related to the calendar week.
