This image shows a vertical timeline grid for the month of August 2023, Tuesday. The grid is composed of a vertical axis on the left with numbers 0 through 24, and a large area of dotted lines for scheduling. The vertical axis is a solid grey line with small white circles at each hour mark. The numbers 0 through 24 are printed to the left of the axis. The dotted lines form a grid that extends to the right of the axis, providing a space for scheduling activities.
